The above order was communicated to the Deputy Commissioner and also to the petitioner (the Peshkar of the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud)

The Deputy Commissioner now reports that the Peshkar died on the 15th April 1905, that a sum of Rs 60/- was recovered from him and credited to the Treasury, and that it is not possible to recover the balance (viz Rs 140).

It is to be very much regretted that Nanjundiah is dead. He was getting Rs 25 a month as Peshkar of the Nanjangud temple and was also probably getting a pension for his previous service under Govt. A few days before his death, his eldest* son who was getting 50 Rs a month in the Govt Secretariat, breathed his last. Another son named M Subba Rao is now employed in the same Secretariat on Rs. 30/— Under these circs it does not seem possible to recover the sum of Rs. 140/- left unpaid by the deceased. The amount may, if so ~~ordered~~ directed, be written off the accounts. The temple of course loses the amount.

* M. Subramaniayya

A draft is put up for approval.

Condemning the loss the Sarvadhikari has sustained in the death of two of his staff members, the Sarvadhikari may in my opinion write off the balance remaining unrecovered.

The Secretary to Government of Mysore,
Bangalore

The humble petition of Nanjundiah pensioned Sheristadar of the Gundelpet Taluk most respectfully sheweth,

That your honour is aware of the Government order that the petitioner should recoup Rs 200 being the value of the pearls connected with the jewellery of the Himavad Gopalaswami temple, the petitioner being asked to pay up the amount in one lumpsum. No pay having been disbursed to him for the last 16 months, the petitioner has been under the necessity of disposing of all his property to maintain himself. The pension which will be hereafter sanctioned is not also sufficient to keep body and soul together of himself and eleven of his family dependents. To add to his miseries during these eleven months he was without any pay or pension. His eldest son's wife having died about a month or two ago, his marriage has also to be celebrated. He has besides some daughters still to be married. All the expenses connected with these events and the debts he had to contract during the eleven months he was without any pay or pension, have to be met out of his pension.

That under the foregoing circumstances the petitioner humbly solicits that your honour will be graciously pleased to order recovery of the amount he has to pay by four annual instalments of Rs 50 each, for which act of favour the petitioner most respectfully begs leave to remain

Your honour's most obedient and humble servant

M. Narayanachah
